

BONANZA OPENING OF THE NEW CRANLEIGH VILLAGE HALL.

Cranleigh Village Hall has had a dramatic new face lift and was opened with its first production on the 28th September 2024. The auditorium has been tastefully decorated, having new curtains, lighting and a spectacular acoustic ceiling using the Albert Hall designs.

On entering, the audience were each handed a comprehensive programme and shown to their seats by a Memory Lane Team member. The special performance in September entitled "Joy in Music," was presented by Cranleigh's Memory Lane in-house musicians with further talent by guest artists, Janet Beale from Adele and the U3A Ukulele Group with their rousing raucous songs that had every one singing the songs they all remembered. It was such a bonanza of joy for those experiencing dementia, recalling the old tunes. At times the hall came alive with singing and of course clapping to the Radetsky March No 5 by J. Strauss played by Janet on the accordion. It was an excellent combination of music and poetry created by Liz Westaway a trained Opera Singer, who leads music sessions each month at Memory Lane in the Cranleigh Art Centre.

People came from Care and Dementia groups from Guildford to Horsham and villages between, along with others who were lonely and welcomed the support given. The hall was bursting at the seams as extra seating was added around the perimeter which meant Memory Lane were delighted to donate generously to the Alzheimer's Society for their work in stabilising the disease.

Memory Lane meet at 2.15pm in Cranleigh Arts Centre on the 1st & 3rd Monday every month. For further details, please contact Memory Lane 01483 274398 or email: mamwild@aol.com
